

Filed for intro on 02/08/95
Senate Bill _____
By _____

House No. HB0817
By Davis

AN ACT to designate State Route 350 in Greene Country as the “Judge Wayland Harrison Road”.

WHEREAS, the designation of a road in honor of a citizen is one of the best ways to permanently recognize and commemorate his or her contribution to the betterment of his or her community and state; and

WHEREAS, the late Judge Wayland Harrison, a valued and much beloved resident of Greene County, is unquestionably deserving of this form of special recognition; and

WHEREAS, Judge Harrison served as Greene County General Sessions Judge for many years in an exemplary, fair and wise manner that earned him the deep respect of citizens of the community, other judges and attorneys and the members of this body; and

WHEREAS, he dealt impartially with the important and complicated issues of civil suits, criminal matters and preliminary hearings; and

WHEREAS, Judge Harrison also worked tirelessly to improve the lives of the residents of Greene County and was always willing to lend a helping hand to those fellow human beings in need; and

WHEREAS, it is very fitting that this General Assembly pause in its deliberations to permanently commemorate the life of this notable citizen; now, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, State Route 350 in Greene County is hereby designated as the "Judge Wayland Harrison Road" in recognition of his indelible legacy of commitment to public service.

SECTION 2. The Department of Transportation shall not erect suitable signs and/or markers so designating such road, until the Green County Legislative Body by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote requests the Commissioner of Transportation to erect such signs and/or markers and certifies such action to the Department of Transportation and the General Assembly.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.